

Digital Heritage: Anticipating an Integrated Way Forward

Edinburgh Group Workshop Report COTAC: January 2020

Building upon the EU Fostering cooperation in the European Union on Skills, Training and Knowledge Transfer in Cultural Heritage Professions: Open Method of Coordination (OMC) Report launched in June 2019, the COTAC enabled Edinburgh Group arranged and held a related Workshop at the Engine Shed, Stirling on 7 November 2019 hosted by Historic Environment Scotland (HES). Developing and expanding upon the presentation themes, the Workshop Report was launched in January 2020.

The Open Method of Coordination (OMC) 22 EU countries strong Group worked over two years to produce this comprehensive report. It contains recommendations on the four developmental phases of heritage professionals: raising awareness; education and training; lifelong learning, and knowledge transfer.

Following EU project scene setting, the Edinburgh Group Digital Heritage: Anticipating an Integrated Way Forward Workshop addressed current technological developments, related skills and training initiatives and evolving learning resources emanating from the HES Engine Shed innovative Educational Programme.
